Newly Elected Officials Training

The Georgia General Assembly passed legislation (O.C.G.A. 36-45-1) requiring all persons elected as member of a municipal governing authority who were not serving as members of a municipal governing authority on July 1, 1990 to attend and satisfactory complete a training program specifically designed for newly elected municipal officials. The Georgia Municipal Association and the University of Georgia's Carl Vinson Institute of Government are pleased to provide this required training to Georgia's newly elected municipal officials.

The Newly Elected Officials Institute provides an opportunity for mayors and councilmembers to increase their knowledge and understanding of city government, especially as it relates to the role and responsibility of the elected official. The training provides information designed to increase the awareness of the legal, financial and ethical responsibilities of the city officials. Further, the course provides six hours of credit toward the voluntary training certificate program available through the Municipal Training Institute.

Municipal elected officials that have served before and have been reelected are required to take the Newly Elected Official Institute again if they have been out of office for more than four years. The Newly Elected Officials institute is offered annually, generally in February or March.

CANDIDATE REQUIREMENTS

For the purposes of reporting, a candidate is a filer in an Election Year. There are four ways you can achieve candidate status for the purposes of reporting. Ask yourself...

- Have you filed a Declaration of Intention to Accept Campaign Contributions form?
- Have you qualified for election or qualified for nomination for election?
- Have you received contributions or made expenditures designed to bring about your election or nomination for election?
- Have you authorized a campaign committee to receive contributions or make expenditures designed to bring about your election or nomination for election?

All of these actions confer candidate status. If you answered YES to any of the questions above, even if you have not yet formally qualified as a candidate, you are required to file Campaign Contribution Disclosure Reports. The definition by the ACT for Candidate is found under O.C.G.A. 21-5-3(4).

Now That I Have Achieved Candidate Status... What's Next?

If you have not done so already, file a Declaration of Intention to Accept Contributions – Form DOI

Reference: O.C.G.A. § 21-5-30 (g)

Anyone who is not already a public officer and who plans to run for public office must file a Declaration of Intention to Accept Campaign Contributions BEFORE accepting such contributions. No such declaration is required of persons who are public officers and who plan to run for the same public office they currently hold. Form DOI is filed with your local filing entity if running for a local office.

File a form for Choosing Option of Separate Account – Form COOSA

Reference: O.C.G.A. § 21-5-43 (a) (2)

A candidate who wishes to accept contributions for more than one election at a time shall separately account for such campaign contributions and shall file an "Option to Choose Separate Accounting" form with the Commission prior to accepting contributions for any election other than the candidate's next upcoming election. A candidate is only required to file one Form COOSA which shall be utilized for all subsequent elections to the same office, regardless of whether an election occurs in a new election cycle.

Do I Need To Form A Candidate Committee?

If you have designated someone to file your reports or if anyone is collecting your contributions or expending your contributions, you have a campaign committee.

File a Registration Form for a Candidate's Campaign Committee - Form RC.

Reference: O.C.G.A. § 21-5-3(2) and O.C.G.A. § 21-5-30(b)

The term "campaign committee" as it relates to the candidate means the candidate, person(s) or committee which accepts contributions or makes expenditures for the purpose of bringing about the nomination or election of an individual to any elected office. If a candidate has a campaign committee, the name and address of the committee, its chairperson, treasurer and the candidate must be registered with the Commission prior to accepting any contributions. Any substantive changes to registration information of a committee must be up- dated with the Commission within 7 business days.

"Registration Form for a Candidate's Campaign Committee" is filed with the Commission. No candidate may have more than one campaign committee.

No contributions may be accepted at any time there is a vacancy in either the position of chairperson or treasurer. One person may serve as both chairperson and treasurer.

When a candidate is elected to office, the candidate's campaign committee registration will remain in effect as long as the candidate remains in office until and unless the registration is canceled by the campaign committee or the candidate.

Campaign Record Keeping

Detailed records must be kept of all contributions received and expenditures made. Records must be maintained by the candidate or treasurer of a campaign committee and may be inspected by the Commission at any time. The right of inspection may be enforced by the Courts in the State of Georgia. Records of the accounts kept by a candidate or candidate's committee are required to be preserved for three years from the termination date of the candidate's campaign. However, since public disclosures are maintained for not less than five years, candidates are advised to keep records for at least five years.

Contributions of money received by the candidate or the candidate's campaign committee must be promptly deposited in a separate campaign depository account (separate from the personal banking account of the candidate) opened and maintained for this purpose. The account may be an interest bearing account and any interest earned will be deemed a contribution to the campaign committee; interest earned is not payable to the candidate.

Use of Campaign Funds

- Contribution to a charitable organization;
- Transfer to national, state, or local committee of any political party;
- Pro rata repayment to persons making such contribution;

Anonymous Contribution

Anonymous contributions are prohibited. Any cash contribution received by a candidate who fails to record the name and address of the contributor and the amount of the contribution is an anonymous contribution.

If an anonymous contribution is received it must be transmitted to the Office of Treasury and Fiscal Services 200 Piedmont Ave, Suite 1202 West Tower, Atlanta, GA 30334. Telephone # (404) 656-2168. The recipient must also notify the Commission of the receipt of the contribution and its subsequent transmittal to the office of Treasury and Fiscal Services.

Maximum Contribution Limits

The Act, specifically O.C.G.A. § 21-5-41 (k) directs the Commission to raise or lower the maximum contribution limits set forth in O.C.G.A. § 21-5-41 by $100 increments based on inflation or deflation as determined by the Consumer Price index published by the US Dept. of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics .
